

Innovative Digital Signage System

• Smart • Simple • Scalable

Video Wall Digital Signage Made Simple

Video wall is a great mean to display and broadcast your company products and services to your potential customers, no matter it is installed in your store or in your demo office, with the advance technologies in panel display, which enable to build video wall with a super narrow bezel-to-bezel measurement of less than 5mm. Video wall can be used as effective communication tool to deliver corporate information in reception area, conference room or at the store front , integrated with iSignage – Digital Signage System, video wall can even display real time data, scheduling display of commercial advertising information and any data source, from images, a 4K video file to an animated file.

Nowadays, more and more video wall installations are set up in the retail outlets as part of the digital signage marketing plan for retails operators as well as in other industries, such as restaurants, banking, transportation, education, corporate, hotel and hospital, this is mainly because of key technologies changes in term of player PC and panel display, all these factors have enhanced the effectiveness of video walls and expanding the applications in the market.

iSignage – digital signage system has make the video wall application becomes possible, with iSignage iPlays Video Wall Module, the admin user can manage their display content in a more flexible manner, the iPlays Video Wall Module come with a CMS (content management system) not just allows admin user to update/edit their display content, it also help the supporting staff to monitor and enduring the video wall system to operate at its upmost performance with minimum support required.

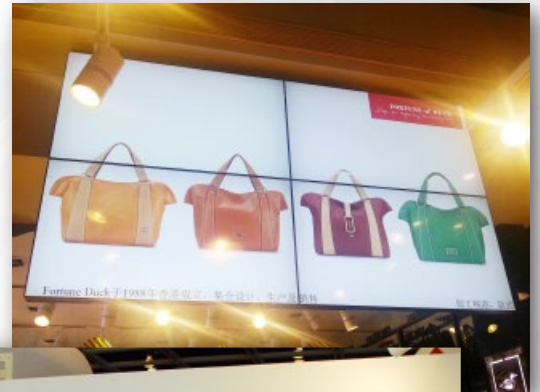

Innovative Digital Signage System

• Smart • Simple • Scalable

iSignage - Market leader in Video Wall Solution

iSignage is the market leader in video wall solution, the iPlays Video Wall Module can support 2x2 video wall by bundling with a powerful purpose-built player PC for powering video walls and display dynamic content on multiple displays without compromising the quality of resolution. It has four HDMI outputs and can drive up to four independent Full HD screens, with high performance support for Ultra HD resolution making it ideal for large public displays or video wall.

Key benefit of iSignage Video Wall Module:

- Support multiple zones and multiple file content formats
- Built-in CMS (content management system) with central management function
- Support Ticker, RSS feeds and scheduling
- Support for both Spanning (stretch desktop) and Extended Desktop on all connected screens for up to four independent (Full HD) displays
- Ultra reliable hardware with 24/7 operability
- Energy efficient green computing
- High performance support for Ultra HD resolution (4K*)

* 4K playback result may vary based on codecs and content being played

For more information, please check it out at

